CONSENT FOR PSYCHIATRIC TREATMENT

Patient Name: _____

Today's Date: ____/____/____

1. Consent to Evaluate/Treat: I voluntarily consent to participate in a mental health (or psychiatric) evaluation and/or treatment. I acknowledge that following the evaluation and/or treatment, information will be provided to concerning each of the following areas:
  - a. The benefits of the proposed treatment;
  - b. Alternative treatment modes and services;
  - c. The manner in which treatment will be administered;
  - d. Expected side effects from the treatment and/or the risks of side effects from medications (when applicable); and
  - e. Probable consequences of not receiving treatment.

I understand that the evaluation or treatment will be conducted by a psychiatrist. Treatment will be conducted within the boundaries of Florida law.

2. Risks, Benefits, and Alternatives to Evaluation/Treatment: I understand that Dr. Kirsner may evaluate and treat me through a variety of methods, such as psychological/psychiatric interviews, psychological/psychiatric assessments or testing, psychotherapy, medication management, and that these methods may vary in length and frequency. I also understand that it will be beneficial to Dr. Kirsner, as well as the referring professional, to understand the nature and cause of any difficulties affecting my daily functioning so that he can offer appropriate recommendations and treatments. Uses of Dr. Kirsner's evaluation include diagnosis, evaluation of recovery or treatment, estimating prognosis, and education and rehabilitation planning.

I understand that possible benefits to treatment include improved cognitive or academic/job performance, health status, quality of life, and awareness of strengths and limitations. Possible risks include bad interactions with prescribed medications, which could cause discomfort, injury or death. Alternatives to psychiatric treatment include mental health counseling, treatment by a general medical doctor, and self-help, such as through education or lifestyle changes.

3. Confidentiality, Harm, and Inquiry: Information from Dr. Kirsner's evaluation and/or treatment is contained in a confidential medical record. I hereby consent to disclosure for use by Ronald M. Kirsner, M.D., P.A.'s staff for the purpose of continuity of my care. I acknowledge that pursuant to Florida mental health law, information provided will be kept confidential with the following exceptions:

- a. If I am deemed to present a danger to myself or others;
  - b. If concerns about possible abuse or neglect arise; or
  - c. If a court order is issued to obtain records.
4. Right to Withdraw Consent: I understand that I have the right to withdraw my consent for evaluation and/or treatment at any time by providing a written request to Dr. Kirsner.

CONSENT FOR PSYCHIATRIC TREATMENT

I have read and understand the above informed consent, have had an opportunity to ask questions about this information. I consent to the evaluation and treatment. I also attest that I have the right to consent for treatment and I have not been deemed incapable of giving such consent by any court. I understand that I have the right to ask questions of Dr. Kirsner about the above information at any time. I acknowledge I received the patient's bill of rights.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

Effective Date: January 10, 2014

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

1. Your Rights

You have the right to:

- Get a copy of your paper or electronic medical record
- Correct your paper or electronic medical record
- Request confidential communication
- Ask us to limit the information we share
- Get a list of those with whom we've shared your information
- Get a copy of this privacy notice
- Choose someone to act for you
- File a complaint if you believe your privacy rights have been violated

2. Your Choices

You have some choices in the way that we use and share information as we:

- Tell family and friends about your condition
- Provide disaster relief
- Include you in a hospital directory
- Provide mental health care
- Market our services and sell your information
- Raise funds

3. Our Uses and Disclosures

We may use and share your information as we:

- Treat you
- Run our organization
- Bill for your services
- Help with public health and safety issues
- Do research
- Comply with the law
- Respond to organ and tissue donation requests
- Work with a medical examiner or funeral director

- Address workers' compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests
- Respond to lawsuits and legal actions

4. Our Responsibilities

- Maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information

1. Your Rights

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

Get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record

- You can ask to see or get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this by contacting our Privacy Officer.
- We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, usually within 30 days of your written request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.

Ask us to correct your medical record

- You can ask us in writing to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this by contacting our Privacy Officer.
- We may say “no” to your request, but we’ll tell you why in writing within 60 days.

Request confidential communications

- You can ask us in writing to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address. Ask us how to do this by contacting our Privacy Officer.
- We will say “yes” to all reasonable requests.

Ask us to limit what we use or share

- You can ask us in writing not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say “no” if it would affect your care. Ask us how to do this by contacting our Privacy Officer.
- If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us in writing not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. We will say “yes” unless a law requires us to share that information. Ask us how to do this by contacting our Privacy Officer.

Get a list of those with whom we've shared information

- You can ask us in writing for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, whom we shared it with, and why. Ask us how to do this by contacting our Privacy Officer.
- We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.

Get a copy of this privacy notice

- You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly. Ask us how to do this by contacting our Privacy Officer.

Choose someone to act for you

- If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.
- We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.

File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated

- You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting the Privacy Officer listed below.
- You can also file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.
- We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

2. Your Choices

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share.

- If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

- Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care
- Share information in a disaster relief situation
- Include your information in a hospital directory

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases we never share your information unless you give us written permission:

- Marketing purposes
- Sale of your information
- Most sharing of psychotherapy notes

In the case of fundraising:

- We may contact you for fundraising efforts, but you have the right to opt out, and we will honor your request if you tell us that you would not like to receive these communications.

3. Our Uses and Disclosures

How do we typically use or share your health information?

- We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.

Treat you

- We can use your health information and share it with other professionals who are treating you.
- Example: A doctor treating you for an injury asks another doctor about your overall health condition.

Bill for your services

- We can use and share your health information to bill and get payment from health plans or other entities.
- Example: We give information about you to your health insurance plan so it will pay for your services.

Run our organization

- We can use and share your health information to run our practice, improve your care, and contact you when necessary.
- Example: We use health information about you to manage your treatment and services.

How else can we use or share your health information?

- We are allowed or required to share your information in other ways – usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. We have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes. For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/index.html.

Help with public health and safety issues

We can share health information about you for certain situations such as:

- Preventing disease
- Helping with product recalls
- Reporting adverse reactions to medications
- Reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence
- Preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone's health or safety

Do research

- We can use or share your information for health research, so long as we obtain documentation that an alteration to or waiver of the individual authorization has been approved by either an Institutional Review Board (IRB) or privacy board.

Comply with the law

- We will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including with the Department of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we're complying with federal privacy law.

Respond to organ and tissue donation requests

- We can share health information about you with organ procurement organizations.

Work with a medical examiner or funeral director

- We can share health information with a coroner, medical examiner, or funeral director when an individual dies.

Address workers' compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests

We can use or share health information about you:

- For workers' compensation claims
- For law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official
- With health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law
- For special government functions such as military, national security, and presidential protective services

Respond to lawsuits and legal actions

- We can share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena.

4. Our Responsibilities

- We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information.
- We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy or security of your information.
- We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice and give you a copy of it.
- We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell us we can in writing. If you tell us we can, you may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind.
- For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/noticepp.html.

Changes to the Terms of this Notice

We can change the terms of this notice, and the changes will apply to all information we have about you. The new notice will be available upon request, in our office, and on our web site.
